Bear in mind

1. Be super specific about what you need to cover during the session. For instance, don't say "I need to improve my grammar". Instead, say "I need to work on compound sentences" or "I need to work on the use of the present perfect simple vs past simple to talk about life experiences"
2. Be punctual and participate actively
3. Turn on your camera so we can get along and enjoy the session even more
4. Feel free to ask as many questions as you need to clarify your doubts
5. Be open to expressing your ideas and receiving feedback
6. Be frank and honest when assessing the session. We really need your feedback to improve
